

NSED- Sponsored Seafood Industry Training Opportunity

10-day training in Seward will prepare Norton Sound residents for potential seafood jobs with NSED's fisheries partners

Norton Sound Economic Development Corporation (NSED) is sponsoring entry-level seafood processing training through the Alaska Vocational Technical Center (AVTEC) in Seward, Alaska for Norton Sound residents. NSED will pay tuition, employment documentation costs, transportation, food, and lodging expenses for selected applicants.

TRAINING DATES: October 7-16, 2019 (Additional days necessary for travel to and from Nome and Seward)

CLASS SIZE: 10 people

NSED DOES NOT GUARANTEE EMPLOYMENT FOR TRAINEES OR PLACE TRAINEES DIRECTLY INTO EMPLOYMENT. However, trainees who successfully complete the program will become certified seafood processors who are eligible for hire in onshore processing plants and on processor vessels. NSED works with its harvesting partners to obtain as many jobs for Norton Sound residents as possible. During the training, Glacier Fish Company human resources personnel will be interviewing trainees for possible employment.

Seafood Processing Training Program Re-Application Policy

Any applicant who has previously been accepted to the training program, but failed the drug screening, will be eligible to re-apply for one additional training program, provided the following steps are completed:

1. Submit two letters of recommendation detailing applicant's desire and capabilities to pursue training and gain employment.
2. Submit a personal statement outlining desired outcomes from participation in the training program.

If an applicant re-applies under this provision and subsequently fails another drug screening, they will be ineligible to re-apply for any future FSOC training opportunities.

This second chance is not available to applicants who have been selected and subsequently violated the zero-tolerance policy on drugs and alcohol during the training and/or travel period. In addition, any applicant who is sent home for a drug/alcohol use will be responsible for all travel expenses to return to his/her home community.

NSEDC staff will make all re-application acceptance decisions in their sole discretion based on the information provided by prospective trainees.
